Just The Beginning For Me

Written by: C. Aaron Wilburn

Featuring Tim & Bridget Dill

Verse 1

The last nail was driven
The cross was raised to the sky.
His mamma and a few faithful friends
Watched Him slowly die.
"Father... it is finished, now I'm in your hands".
They thought that it was over,
But they did not understand.

Chorus

When He said, "It is finished",
That was just the beginning for me.
When He was sealed in the tomb,
I was set free, for He knew
He'd walk out of that grave
In only three days with the keys.
When He said, "It is finished",
That was just the beginning for me.

Verse 2

The door was sealed to the borrowed tomb where He laid.
But a borrowed tomb is enough when you don't plan to stay.
Satan's victory song was a short song to sing,
As Jesus asked "Grave, where is your victory!"
"Death, where is your sting!"

Chorus

When He said, "It is finished",
That was just the beginning for me.
When He was sealed in the tomb,
I was set free, for He knew
He'd walk out of that grave
In only three days with the keys.
When He said, "It is finished",
That was just the beginning for me.

Bridge

When He was sealed in the tomb,
I was set free, I was set free...

For He walked out of that grave
In only three days with the keys.
When He said, "It is finished";
"Father it is now finished!"
When He said, "It is finished"
That was just the beginning for me.
For me...
