

The Church Will Remain

Verse 1

Mountains may crumble, the oceans run dry
The sun, moon and stars may fall out of the sky
Nothing can alter what God has ordained
He promised that forever His church will may remain

CHORUS

It passed through the fire that made martyrs of men
It burned like a beacon where darkness had been
What God has begun he will surely sustain
When the world has passed away, The church will remain

Verse 2

Rise up believer take courage and stand
Nothing can harm what He holds in His hand
You are the body, and you bear His name
So shout to the nations the church will remain

CHORUS

BRIDGE

Jesus said (On this rock I will build my church)
And the gates of hell (The gates of hell)... They shall not prevail
