

Worth It

V1:

Lord, You had the splendor of heaven a crown, a robe, and a throne So what kind of love would lead you to leave the safety of that kind of home I know that you willingly suffered but why would you suffer for me I know what I am and I don't understand how I could be worth Calvary

Chorus:

When You knew I was lost and You knew that a cross was the price You'd have to pay When we cried, "Crucify" Lord, You didn't have to die but you did it anyway
Now I'll never see what You saw in me cause You knew I would never be perfect
But I'm just so glad that somehow you thought I was worth it

V2:

Lord, sometimes I feel like a vessel just useless old pieces of clay But somehow You saw more, something worth dying for You paid more than you should have paid

Repeat Chorus

Now I'll never see what You saw in me
cause You knew I would never be perfect
But I'm just so glad that somehow you thought I was worth it
I'm just so glad that somehow you thought I was worth it
