

I Will Go The Distance

(Wayne Haun/Joel Lindsey/Cindi Ballard)

Verse 1

The Father and the Son stepped out and looked down at the world below.
A distant world where sin's strong arm
Had struck a fatal blow.
There had to be a sacrifice
Across a lonely hill.
Someone had to span the gulf
And Jesus said, "I will".

Chorus

I will go the distance.
I will go that far.
I will give up everything
to bring them where you are.
Even though I could choose
the path of least resistance,
Father, I will take the cross.
I will go the distance.

Verse 2

To think about His sacrifice,
Leaves me with a choice to make.
So many stand just out of reach
With eternity at stake.
But I can be the go-between,
And walk the extra mile.
And if just one should find their way,
Then it's been worth the while.

Chorus

I will go the distance.
I will go that far.
I will give up everything
to bring them where you are.
Even though I could choose
the path of least resistance,
Father, I will take the cross.
I will go the distance.
