

Wonder Working Power

(Rebecca Peck/Marty Funderburk)

Verse 1

To anyone who needs a touch of mercy,
To anyone who's suffered long enough,
Just come to the river of redemption,
You'll find wonder working power in the blood.

Chorus

There's still wonder working power
In the blood of Calvary.
Every day and every hour,
It still flows to make us free.
And it's strong enough today
To wash sin away,
In that never-ending, soul cleansing flood.
There's still wonder working power in the blood.

Verse 2

For every time the tempter tries to bind you,
For every time you stumble and give up,
Praise God, there's a fountain of forgiveness,
There's still wonder working power in the blood.

Chorus

There's still wonder working power
In the blood of Calvary.
Every day and every hour,
It still flows to make us free.
And it's strong enough today
To wash sin away,
In that never-ending, soul cleansing flood.
There's still wonder working power in the blood.

Bridge

There's still power, power
Wonder working power
In the blood of the Lamb.
There's still power, power
Wonder working power
In the precious blood of the Lamb.

Chorus

There's still wonder working power
In the blood of Calvary.
Every day and every hour,
It still flows to make us free.
And it's strong enough today
To wash sin away,
In that never-ending, soul cleansing flood.
There's still wonder working power in the blood.

There's still wonder working power,
Working power,
Wonder working power in the blood.
