The News Is Out

Words & Music by: Richard Calhoun

Featuring Shawn Dill

Verse 1

Bound by chains and shackles Satan had his hold on me.
Condemned to die, no question that I was guilty as could be.
The judge declared my guilt would last forever and a day,
'Till Jesus raised his hand and prayed let mercy take his place...

Chorus

The news is out and verdict's in...
I've been forgiven by the blood and set free from sin.
I will no longer be a prisoner to Satan's ball and chain,
The news is out, the verdict's in – my soul's been saved.

Verse 2

Time and time again old Satan tries to track me down.
Like a fugitive from some past sin he won't forget about.
His evidence can't hold me when I take him back to face,
That day that he remembers well, the day my past met grace!

Chorus

The news is out and verdict's in...
I've been forgiven by the blood and set free from sin.
I will no longer be a prisoner to Satan's ball and chain,
The news is out, the verdict's in – my soul's been saved.

I will no longer be a prisoner to Satan's ball and chain,
The news is out, the verdict's in, and I'm never going back again,
The news is out, the verdict's in - my soul's been saved.
I've been saved!
