

The Feeling In This Heart Of Mine

Written by Lori Kelley

Verse 1

There's an unexplainable feeling deep within my heart.
I've traded sin and condemnation for a brand new place to start.
I want everyone to know the feeling that I feel within...
So I've just got to try and tell it anyway I can.

Chorus

Have you ever found water in the middle of a dry, hot desert?
A peaceful place on a storm tossed sea?
A place to stop and rest awhile when your feet become so weary?
Have you been tired, worn and hungry and found bread to satisfy?
Then you know the feeling in this heart of mine!

Verse 2

I've got peace just like a river flowing inside of me.
Now where there once was condemnation, we are free indeed.
It's so hard to understand if you've never felt this way,
Joy beyond all reasoning, more than words can say...

Chorus

Have you ever found water in the middle of a dry, hot desert?
A peaceful place on a storm tossed sea?
A place to stop and rest awhile when your feet become so weary?
Have you been tired, worn and hungry and found bread to satisfy?
Then you know the feeling in this heart of mine!

Repeat chorus

Yes, I've been tired, worn and hungry and found bread to satisfy!
Do you know the feeling in this heart of mine?

Yes, I found water in the middle of a dry, hot desert!
